- 2.3. The films must have a director who was born in Europe or holds a European* passport. The criteria whereby a film qualifies as European* are based upon the Council of Europe Convention on Cinematographic Co-production (CETS No. 220). To give the most flexible definition, the European Film Academy uses a lower minimum of 13 points as follows:

Second role	2
Third role	1

3. FEATURE FILMS: Selection

- 3.1. The selection of approx. 50 films proposed to the EFA Members to be considered for a nomination is made as follows:
- In the 20 European countries with the highest number of EFA Members (as of 15 March 2018) these members vote directly for one film from among the national feature films released in their country or screened at festivals between 1 June 2017 and 31 May 2018. With a minimal voter turnout of 25 %, the film having received the highest number of votes in each of these countries will automatically be included in the selection of films, provided it corresponds to §§ 2.1. – 2.6. above. Should the voter turnout be less than 25 %, the EFA Board has the right to decide if a film shall be added to the selection.
 - The selection of the approx. 30 remaining films is made by a committee composed of the EFA Board and a group of experts appointed by the board. These remaining films are selected from proposals submitted as detailed under § 2.6.
- 3.2. More than one film from the same country can be selected.
- 3.3. The selected films are made available as VOD to the EFA Members for the nomination procedure.
